5.C.R. No. 44

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Texas Department of Labor and Standards is celebrating the 80th year of its founding and this significant milestone is truly worthy of legislative recognition; and

WHEREAS, Established in 1909 as the Bureau of Labor Statistics, this important agency was charged with collecting statistics pertaining to all segments of labor in Texas, enforcing labor laws, inspecting factories, and encouraging the expansion of Texas industry; and

WHEREAS, Included in the bureau's early activities were the important role it played in getting the "Buy-It-Made-In-Texas" program started to help offset large scale unemployment in the early 1900s and the administration of the labor laws such as the Semi-Monthly Pay Day Law, 1915; the Child Labor Law, 1925; and the Minimum Wage Law; and

WHEREAS, During the next 20 years, the focus of the bureau shifted away from gathering statistics as other citizen protection laws were added to its jurisdiction; and

WHEREAS, The role of the bureau has become much more regulatory in nature since the late 1960s as the laws given to it to administer have been very diverse in their duties and responsibilities; and

WHEREAS, With the name of the bureau changed to its present day title in 1973, an ever-increasing variety of industries has come under its regulation; and

1 WHEREAS, The Texas Department of Labor and Standards with its 2 increased responsibility and importance and its contribution to the 3 quality of life of all the citizens of our state deserves
4 recognition and commendation from the Texas Legislature; now,
5 therefore, be it

6 RESOLVED, That the 71st Legislature of the State of Texas
7 hereby extend hearty congratulations to the Texas Department of 8 Labor and Standards on its outstanding service to the people of 9 Texas; and, be it further
